

EFCA HISTORY AND POLITY SEMINAR

Talbot Seminary

Greg Strand, Director of Biblical Theology and Credentialing, EFCA

November 2-3, 2012

Friday 7:30 - 9:30 pm

Saturday 8:00 am - 12:00 pm, 1:00 pm - 5:00 pm

Introduction

The EFCA History and Polity seminar is considered the baseline for any/all of the credentials in the EFCA. If one desires to minister in the EFCA and be licensed and eventually ordained, this material is mandatory. In the past this class was only offered at our EFCA seminary, so all those who desired to minister in the EFCA and who did not attend our seminary were required to meet this requirement through an independent study. We have experienced a good response to offering the class in an intensive two-day format in other locations and believe there is much to be gained in a class setting over against the independent study format. We look forward to being with you.

Objectives

- Designed for those seeking a greater understanding of the EFCA or anticipating possible placement within this denomination. Attention is paid to history, polity, doctrine, missionary outreach, current trends. Attendees are challenged to consider these distinctives in relation to their own concepts of ministry context and potential.
- Attendees will become familiar with the heritage and distinctives of the Free Church in order to appreciate its present structure and mission.
- Participants will envision how God might use them in furthering His kingdom through the Free Church ministry.
- Participants will fulfill one of the key requirements for credentialing in the EFCA. (For those who know they will be ministering in the EFCA, this objective is very important.)

Required Reading

It is required that you read the three books listed below prior to the seminar. These books are available only at NextStep Resources, the EFCA Bookstore, and they can be ordered by calling 800.444.2665 or on line at www.nsresources.com
